Resort Arena, Feb. 20 to Feb. 23 for six performances. OVO is described as "a headlong rush into a colorful ecosystem, where insects work, eat, crawl, flutter, play, fight and look for love in a non-stop riot of energy and movement." This production is a high acrobatic level show that the whole family will enjoy.

10th Annual Fitness for the Cure

The 10th Annual Fitness for the Cure (formerly Cycle for the Cure) aims to raise cancer research funds for Translational Genomics Research Institute (TGen) while promoting and engaging in physical activity. This year's event offers expanded workout options beyond in-place cycling - including hiking, yoga, and a Kinesis class. Fitness for the Cure will be hosted at all four Valley locations of The Village Health Clubs & Spas in Phoenix, Scottsdale and Chandler, and activity times vary by club. For each club's activity schedules, participation costs and to register, visit tgen.org/fitness.
