With most events being canceled and life outside the home currently put on hold, AZFoothills decided to change things up this week and share 10 things for you to do in the comfort of your own house during the weekend of March 20 to March 22.

Get Your Marie Kondo On

Take a look at Marie Kondo, a de-cluttering goddess who teaches you how to declutter your own home. Check out her show on Netflix, or even some of her YouTube videos online and get your home in the best shape it's ever been in. You can view her videos online for free here.

Try Cooking Something New

Grab your favorite apron and put your cooking skills to the test with some fun spring recipes. There's thousands online, but we have the perfect list of light and fresh spring recipes to try here.

Game Night

Order some take out and gather your loved ones for a fun game night. If you don't have any games, you can find a list of the top-selling games here to try out!

Workout

Get those exercises you've been missing at the gym in now! There are tons of exciting and fun at home exercise videos online (for free) to walk you through an at-home program on platforms such as YouTube—no equipment needed.

Learn Something New

Online websites such as Skillshare are a great source to learn something new from the comfort of your own bed. They have a vast variety of classes from blanket-making to even learning a language. Click here to start a two-month free trial.

Spa Day

Break out your favorite bath bomb, candles and skin care to treat yourself to an at-home spa day. Don't have any? Check out some fun DIYs and customize your own with some ingredients you have lying around.

Camping

Take the fun outdoors and camp. You can do this in a secluded destination or even from the comfort of your own backyard. Gather your loved ones, hitch a tent and enjoy some quality time outside.

Enjoy a Picnic

Gather your favorite snacks and build a nice picnic for yourself or your loved one to enjoy in the refreshing spring-time air. You can even check out this link to see all the essentials you might need.

Stargaze or CloudWatch

Grab a blanket, snacks and take a venture outside for some cloud-watching or stargazing. It's a perfect way to relax, enjoy the weather and watch life unfold.
