Did you realize that successful entrepreneurs think differently than 97% of the population?

The energy, enthusiasm and confidence you have will help you reach your goals. It can be a lonely road when you start your own business and OPO (Other Peoples Opinions) can either fire you up or stop you before you start.

Understanding the way entrepreneurs think increases the action and energy that inspires passion for what you do daily. When you have a clear vision and specific goals, you will be unstoppable. OPO will be nothing more than a faint whisper that fades into the background.

To reach remarkable levels of success in business there are important skills and practices you must maintain. Come to Girlfriend University and find out all the things you need to know so you can be a “thriver” in a world of survivors. Learn the insider tips, hints and methodologies to get you to the top of success mountain in YOUR business. . Sign up for a class at girlfrienduniversity.com or call the GU concierge at 480.278.7200 to find out how the girlfriends, Renee Dee and Jodi Low, can help you create the success you deserve.
