

Where to Watch the Super Bowl in Phoenix

Written by Ashley Loose

Thursday, 02 February 2012 12:54 - Last Updated Thursday, 02 February 2012 13:25

Needing a bigger TV or craving a better menu for the Super Bowl this weekend? Go out and celebrate this year's game and go as big as the game itself at some of the best local restaurants and bars.

Cadillac Ranch at Tempe Marketplace

Cadillac Ranch is starting the festivities at 10 a.m. this Sunday with drink and food specials for everyone. Enjoy taco platters, $1 Coors Light drafts, $3 Mimosas and $4 Bloody Mary's. As if the restaurant and bar wasn't already decked out for any major television sporting event, contests and prizes will be held all day. Enter (or maybe just watch) the halftime Fear Factor Food Challenge and see if you can stomach the Mystery Milkshake, Pasta from Hell, Duck Salad and Sick Shooter for even more great prizes. If contests aren't for you, their 30 HD Plasma TVs and 150 inch stereo surround sound projector screens may just be more than perfect to watch the Patriots take on the Giants.

<http://cadillacranchgroup.com/tempe.html>.

Coach and Willie's in Chandler

Coach and Willie's is offering a complimentary buffet from 4 p.m. until halftime for Super Bowl festivities. Pair $5 and $8 food specials like pizza, buffalo chicken nuggets, 1/3 lb. jalapeno beef and cheddar dogs, and chicken flautas with $2.50 beer specials or buckets for $10. During the game, two sets of lower-level Rattler's season tickets will be given away to lucky recipients. <http://coachandwillies.com/chandler/>.

Roscoe's on 7th in Phoenix

The Valley's only gay sports bar is hosting a Super Bowl party of their own, blocking off their back parking lot to celebrate with traditional wings, burgers, chicken strips, and more. With over a dozen TV's and LCDs, come enjoy the game at Roscoe's, voted Best Gay Bar and Best Sports Bar by a variety of different organizations. <http://roscoeson7th.com/>.

Macayo's

If you're looking for a little Mexican zest to add to your Super Bowl celebration, Macayo's has a variety of party platters perfect for your family and friends. Aside from their restaurant and bar, Macayo's is offering take-out platters of tacos, wings, fruits and vegetables, and samplers of chimichangas, tamales and taquitos. <http://www.macayo.com/>.

Max's Sports Bar and Restaurant in Glendale

Max's Sports Bar and Restaurant is holding Super Bowl lunch and dinner specials all day for just $6, like barbecued pork sandwiches, french fries and cole slaw. Along with their great food specials, if you haven't already heard, keep registering to win a 60 inch TV that will be given away to one lucky guest some time during the game. Don't miss out on your chance to win! Contest participants can enter once a day until Sunday. <https://www.facebook.com/maxssportsbar?sk=wall>.

Buffalo Wild Wings

The well-known sports bar and grill chain has been advertising play-off and football game specials throughout the season. If you haven't taken advantage of their lively atmosphere and great food and drink specials, get in before it's gone this Sunday. Buffalo Wild Wings has both take out and in-restaurant deals, like platters of wings, savory fried sides, refreshing beer, and the rest of their all-American menu.

<http://www.buffalowildwings.com/>.

Sapporo in Scottsdale

Where to Watch the Super Bowl in Phoenix

Written by Ashley Loose

Thursday, 02 February 2012 12:54 - Last Updated Thursday, 02 February 2012 13:25

Sapporo is celebrating the Super Bowl by holding Happy Hour all day. Enjoy $5 Kobe Sliders and fries, $4 California, Philadelphia and Avocado rolls or Sapporo Bombers, and $1 Hot Sake. At the end of each quarter, Sapporo will also hold special prices on items depending who is leading the game with the most points. <https://www.facebook.com/notes/sapporo-scottsdale/super-bowl-sunday-at-sapporo/360149120680336>