

Best Places to Get a Tattoo in Phoenix

Written by Ryan Donada

Tuesday, 02 April 2013 19:09 - Last Updated Wednesday, 03 April 2013 20:36

Here are Phoenix-area tattoo shops with amazing artists and talent.

Golden Rule

Named a 2013 Best of Our Valley winner, Golden Rule in Phoenix is a shop that is clean, friendly and quite professional. They can do anything from a beautiful detailed portrait of Star War's Boba Fett, intricate banners with the best of life's sayings, to the classic designs of skulls and flames.

<http://thegoldenruletattoo.com/>

Divinity Tattoo

Since 2002, Divinity Tattoo in Scottsdale has been acquiring some of the best artists in the country. From large-scale body work and complex Asian pieces to brilliant and imaginative custom work, this shop makes tattoos as if they are painting a piece of art for a gallery; their art in tattooing is exponentially rare, each piece is unique and custom. But it is recommended to book an appointment in advance; they travel a lot and have become popular place for people looking for tattoos. They also have art prints, T-shirts, sculptures and many other artwork at their shop, all made by Divinity artists.

<http://www.divinitytattoo.com/>

Club Tattoo

Located in Las Vegas, San Francisco and Phoenix, Club Tattoo makes tattoos a lifestyle. With world-famous artists in their studio, their recognition has made them a striving business in tattooing. The concept at Club Tattoo allows the guests to play with an Interactive Tattoo touch screen to create their own design, offering complete freedom to choose.

<http://clubtattoo.com/>

Best Places to Get a Tattoo in Phoenix

Written by Ryan Donada

Tuesday, 02 April 2013 19:09 - Last Updated Wednesday, 03 April 2013 20:36

No Regrets Tattoo Parlor

A great place to get a classic and traditional design, No Regrets in Tempe has had no problems pleasing their guests. The artists are well known for their professional attitude and talent. Many of the tattoos found around the Valley are likely done by one of the artists at this parlor.

<http://www.noregretstattoo.com/>

High Noon Tattoo

This owner-operated parlor in central Phoenix features full-time artists who have a wide range of talent so that the customer can be catered to whatever style they are looking for, whether it is their first tattoo, a final piece to a sleeve, a tattoo with vibrant colors, or a simple black-and-white piece.

<http://www.highnoontattoo.com/>

Lucky Draw Tattoo

Many fans of Lucky Draw of Glendale profess how friendly the artists are—they project a nice atmosphere where someone getting a tattoo can ask questions or just hang and talk with the artists. There is no elitist mentality found here--like in many tattoo shops out there—and no complaints on their artwork.

<http://luckydrawtattooaz.com/home.html>

Love and Hate Tattoo & Piercing

This is the perfect place for tattoo virgin. Customers of Love and Hate Tattoo & Piercing in Phoenix say the staff is the greatest asset, who are helpful and are very good at calming anyone who is afraid of getting a tattoo, especially in places that cause severe pain. Their reputation is their excellence in black and gray designs, but they have artists that can do anything from traditional tattoos, Japanese styles tonew school and more.

Love and Hate Tattoo & Piercing