

Must-Attend Event: AZ Jet Center January 17

Written by Karah Van Kammen

Wednesday, 03 January 2018 10:52 -

Rev your engines because Scottsdale Auction Week returns this January with classic and exotic car aficionados from all over the world who will converge on the Valley of the Sun for multiple auto auctions. The action extends beyond just the auctions with must-attend event from the Jet Center Foundation on January 17. The luxe lifestyle event hosted at the Jet Hangar of Aero Jet Services will feature special aircraft, select automobiles, live music, fine art, boutique fashions, delicious catering, fine wines, spirits, cigars and more.

The event also serves as a fundraiser for fabulous local organizations including Child Help for the prevention and treatment of child abuse, and Forever Loved Pet Sanctuary. During the evening, attendees will have the opportunity through a silent auction, to obtain some of the great works of art, as well as fine products supplied by sponsors and local businesses with funds going to support the two charities.

Tickets are on sale for $115 and include event admission, wine and premium spirits, live music, fashion, appetizers and goodie bag with special gifts from event sponsors including tickets for complementary admission to the Celebration of Fine Art – Scottsdale.

As a proud sponsor, AZ Foothills is offering $20 off the admission price with promo code AZFH2018 for a limited time only. Get your tickets before they are gone at www.jetcenterevents.com.

