Spring is often thought of as the awakening of the mind, body and soul. For many of us, the new season is a time seek out different ways to rejuvenate our lives. This year, we suggest heading to the Spa at Sanctuary Camelback Mountain for days filled with inspiration and relaxation. From innovative spa services to local resort memberships, Sanctuary sets the standard for resort style living in the desert.

Spa Services: Discover an extraordinary journey of revitalization, balance and relaxation at the Sanctuary Resort Spa, one of the top destination spas in the country. Indulge in distinctive architecture, an array of lavish spa amenities, including an outdoor Watsu pool and Quiet Room, and an extensive menu of Asian-inspired services in twelve indoor and outdoor treatment rooms. Spa services range from skin care, body treatments, massage therapies and specialized treatments. No matter what your spa goals are, Sanctuary will far exceed them!

Our Spring Spa Pick: We tried and loved the Soul Connect with Michael. Truly connect with your higher self and lift your spirit by aligning your physical, emotional and spiritual being. This spa journey starts with setting your intention with the help of animal divinity cards. Next, you are guided into a soothing meditation that will set the tone to connect you with your higher self, which is perfect for a spring cleansing of the mind and body. Experience an intuitively guided combination of chakra balancing, massage and color-focused energy work.
