When you shop at Salvation Army Family Thrift Stores in the Phoenix metro area, you help fund rehabilitation programs that change lives. For over 125 years, since its local Arizona founding in 1893, The Salvation Army Phoenix Metro has brought help and healing to the hungry and hurting.

Proceeds are used to fund our Adult Rehabilitation Centers, where those in the grip of addiction find help, hope, and a second chance at life.

When you donate goods to The Salvation Army, those items are then sold at the Family Stores. And the proceeds are used to fund our Adult Rehabilitation Centers, where those in the grip of addiction find help, hope, and a second chance at life.

You can also donate money, or goods and clothing, volunteer or start a fundraiser for the Salvation Army. You can even donate airline miles, or gift annuities.

The Salvation Army's mission is an international movement. It is an evangelical part of the Universal Christian Church.

And The Salvation Army serves neighbors in need without discrimination or judgment.

Some of the Salvation Army's programs in the metro Phoenix area that make an impact include adult rehabilitation centers, homeless services, extreme heat relief, senior programs and youth programs.
