Kathy's scoop on the private party.

There was a $50 million surprise at the meet and greet for Sharon Lechter, who annotated the new release of Napoleon Hill's "Outwitting the Devil." The book signing party was at Molina Fine Jewelers- and it was the perfect place for Sharon who co-authored "Three Feet From Gold" to sign the new book. Not only were guests surrounded by gold, they had the chance to see Al Molina's multi-million dollar diamond. "That's $50 million right there," said Al as he let several of the guests hold the jewel. (The security team was keeping a watchful eye of course.)

Yes, the party was as the invitation said, "An Evening of Jewels and Inspiration." The new book, "Outwitting the Devil" is the sequel to "Three Feet From Gold." Napoleon Hill's "Outwitting the Devil" identifies and confronts life's greatest obstacles – fear, procrastination, anger and jealousy – which stand in the way of success.

The book, previously unreleased due to its controversial nature regarding the devil, recognizes these obstacles as tools of the devil that can lead to personal demise, but Hill reveals seven principles to triumph over them and succeed. The now released annotated book stands to be a powerful inspiration in today's society, just as Hill inspired millions to lead successful lives in 1937 with the release of "Think and Grow Rich".

Sharon, also the co-author of the best-selling book Rich Dad, Poor Dad and the Rich Dad series is also quoted in a new book by Yvonne Lime Feddersen, "Miracle Healing: God's Call."

The book is filled with testimonials of miracles through Sara Buckner O'Meara. Sara and Yvonne, who live in Paradise Valley, Arizona are the well-known founders and heads of Childhelp. The two women not only authored the book "Silence Broken" together, but it was the basis for the Lifetime movie about their lives and the founding of Childhelp, now based in Scottsdale.

The book also includes the prayers and miracles about Sara's healing gift from God and stories from Sara and Yvonne's Little Chapel in Paradise Valley.

Sharon Lechter says of the Miracle Healing book, "As an agent of God's healing power, Sara has spent her lifetime sharing her gift of love and hope to believers of all faiths," explains Sharon.
