

AZ Insider: Controversial Hockey Player Sells His House for over $5M

Written by Written by Kathy Shayna Shocket

Thursday, 16 July 2015 15:04 - Last Updated Thursday, 16 July 2015 15:54

Kathy Shayna Shocket has the inside scoop on the stories that make headlines.

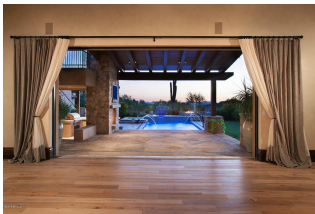

Kathy reports on the stunning home fit for a celeb.

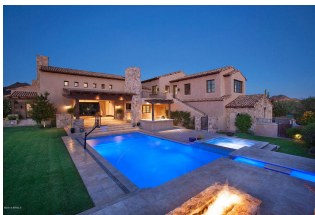

This luxurious 7 bedroom, 8 .5 bath apx. 8,500 square- foot- home of a former Arizona Coyotes player with a bad boy reputation... just sold for $5.3 million.

When the Arizona Coyotes bought out Mike Ribeiro's contract, he moved on to the Nashville Predators. Mike, known for his party lifestyle, and 2010 arrest in Texas for public intoxication, had divorced his wife Tamara and then the couple remarried. By the way, the Coyotes bought out his contract in 2014, for $10,495,000 for what Coyotes General Manager Don Maloney called "behavioral issues".

Here's the spectacular entry way of the home fit for a celeb.

The north Scottsdale home has views of the magnificent sunsets, the golf course and city lights of the Valley.

The house perfect for entertaining, boasts a game/media room, outdoor entertaining areas, outdoor kitchen and huge back yard. Photos courtesy of Silverleaf Realty. There's also an impressive guest quarters.

It's resort style living at its best!

Kathy Shayna Shocket is a freelance Writer and TV-Field Producer based in Phoenix, AZ. She's a former TV Reporter who's also written for national publications such as TIME Magazine, MONEY Magazine, PEOPLE Magazine, the Hollywood Reporter and The NEW YORK TIMES. She can be reached at redcarpetgirl@aol.com