

Labor Day Weekend: Where to Stay

Written by Kirstina Bolton

Monday, 29 August 2011 11:19 - Last Updated Monday, 29 August 2011 11:54

With Labor Day coming up just around the corner, here are some great places to get away and save during the summer heat.

Ritz-Carlton, Dove Mountain

For the appointment-setters and go-getters, stay at the Ritz-Carlton, Dove Mountain for a jam-packed weekend of fun for the whole family. For $179 per night, you can begin each day with a family nature walk, then peruse the lawn games or enjoy ping-pong and bocce ball before taking in the Native Arizona experience of arrowhead making demonstrations. Top the night off by splurging on sushi in the Ignite lounge or satisfying your taste buds with a prix-fix feast at the CORE. Also enjoy the sunset and night sky amidst live entertainment and a 'smore sensation. 800.241.3333, www.ritzcarlton.com/DoveMountain

Four Seasons Resort, Scottsdale at Troon North

Nestle yourself between the mountains of North Scottsdale at the Four Seasons Resort Scottsdale at Troon North. With their appetizing menu options and a dive-in movie of "Toy Story 3," Labor Day will become the most relaxing weekend yet. Take the most advantage of your stay by receiving a late check-out time for free. Rooms start at $169 per night. 480.513.5039, www.fourseasons.com/scottsdale

Scottsdale Resort and Conference Center

Savor the flavor of summer with the Savor Summer package at Scottsdale Resort and Conference Center. Experience deluxe rooms for only $110 per night and receive $100 culinary credit to use during your stay. As an added luxury, you can up-grade to one of their 1,200-sq.-ft. casita suites. Offer available through Labor Day. Simply include promotional code SUNNY10 when checking in online at www.thescottsdaleresort.com/resort_deals/ or over the phone at 800.540.0727.

Fairmont Scottsdale Princess

The Fairmont Scottsdale Princess is combining the best of Hawaii and Las Vegas and offering it in an ultimate "dream-cation" package for guests. Abandon yourself to a weekend that includes a Polynesian show on Saturday and a High Roller buffet on Sunday. Couples and families can now experience the fun and activities of destination vacations in their backyard. Stays begin at $169 per night that includes a $50 food and drink voucher. 480.585.2706, www.scottsdaleprincess.com

Labor Day Weekend: Where to Stay

Written by Kirstina Bolton

Monday, 29 August 2011 11:19 - Last Updated Monday, 29 August 2011 11:54

Westin, Downtown Phoenix

For Arizona residents, The Westin Downtown Phoenix is offering the Urban Adventure Package. Revel in your stay for $129 per night, which includes complimentary overnight parking ($27 value), $30 dining credit and complimentary access to their gym. This is the perfect “stay-cation” for any resident seeking to get above the city for the weekend. 866-716-8137, www.westinphoenixdowntown.com

Hotel Valley Ho

Cool off poolside at Scottsdale's Hotel Valley Ho, where rates start at $129 Friday, $139 Saturday and $99 Sunday. Receive more savings if you book the whole weekend. Entertainment DJ M P-Body will also be performing Saturday and Sunday, mixing old classics with hip tunes for a labor-free weekend with your friends. 480.248.2000, www.hotelvalleyho.com