Does the promise of falling asleep to the sound of crashing waves and the saline dew of saltwater air have you California dreaming? What about out-of-this-world dining, shopping and pampering? Read on for 14 of our most inviting neighbors to the west.

THE BEVERLY HILLS HOTEL

The mecca for Hollywood's elite (and aspiring elite, too), The Beverly Hills Hotel has been an icon in sunny Los Angeles for more than 100 years. Nicknamed the "Pink Palace," this hotel is one of the most Instagrammed spots in the city, as its contrasting tropical gardens make it picture perfection. With 208 guest rooms and suites (some featuring fireplaces and killer views of star-studded Beverly Hills), the hotel also offers up 23 fabulous garden bungalows that are currently getting an oh-so L.A. facelift. Say "hello" to the new and improved bungalows' SoCal coloring that—of course—includes the hotel's signature pink as well as rust, green and gold. And you can expect to see a classic take on 1940's French and Hollywood styles with state-of-the-art technology that pays homage to some of the bungalows' big-name guests. Bungalow 7 was Marilyn Monroe's favorite, and Elizabeth Taylor spent six of her eight honeymoons at the hotel's gardenside rooms. dorchestercollection.com/en/los-angeles/the-beverly-hills-hotel.

Wear the Wallpaper!

Named one of the world's most recognizable wallpapers, the banana leaf walls at The Beverly Hills Hotel have been transformed into wearables. Pick yourself up a pair of luxury sneaker brand Koio Collective's banana leaf kicks, a Beverly Hills hotel Apolis bag, the silkiest banana leaf pajama set you'll ever find and more.

HOTEL BEL-AIR

Nestled into the perfectly posh hills of Bel-Air, luxury is the name of the game at Hotel Bel-Air. What was once a private estate has been transformed into one of L.A.'s hottest spots, though you don't feel like you're in the middle of the City of Angels while staying here. Rather, the hotel is a sanctuary that spans 12 acres and boasts incredibly stunning Spanish Mission-style architecture and bougainvillea that will make your heart stop. From complimentary tea service in the stunning lobby that will leave you feeling hyper-sophisticated, to lunch on the Bel-Air terrace where you'll be playing it cool while dining next to Hollywood's stars, Hotel Bel-Air is class and beauty all rolled into one. Speaking of luxury, don't miss the hotel's Spa Indulgence package that shows firsthand why this spa is a Forbes Five-Star Award-winning one. By booking two nights at the hotel, you receive a $110 daily breakfast credit and a $200 spa credit. Add a third night, and up your spa credit to $300. Make it four nights, and enjoy a $400 spa credit. dorchestercollection.com/en/los-angeles/hotel-bel-air.

Wind Down With Wine

What better way to brush off that mid-week slump than with Hotel Bel-Air Spa's Wine Down Wednesdays? On the first hump day of every month from 5 to 9 p.m., book a nail service to get a complimentary wine pairing.

MONTAGE LAGUNA BEACH

With the sound of the surf right out your window, a stay at Montage Laguna Beach is everything your California dreaming imagined. This 250-room resort exudes Amalfi Coast vibes with its architecture and its verandas. You'll find romance at every turn here, especially when you're watching the sunset over the Pacific with a glass of fine California wine in hand. Though the Craftsman-style coziness of the resort is something to love, it doesn't feel cozy at the expense of luxury—you'll enjoy all the amenities of a super-deluxe beachfront stay here. And 2018 marks the 15-year anniversary of this property. In celebration, a new lobby lounge has been unveiled where floor-to-ceiling windows and a mixture of indoor/outdoor seating provide the idyllic place to begin your Montage experience. montagehotels.com/lagunabeach.

Can't Beet It

The resort's signature restaurant, Studio, is offering an elevated, creative Vegetarian Tasting Menu that includes items like Crimson beet tartare—the veggie version of classic beef tartare where a beet yolk serves as the centerpiece.

LA QUINTA RESORT & CLUB

Originally intended to be the ultimate getaway for the glitterati of Hollywood, this resort has, since its 1926 inception, been renovated to become the ultimate getaway for guests from all over, famous or not. With an award-winning spa, five championship golf courses, a world-renowned tennis club and much more, "I'm bored" is a phrase that no one comprehends here. La Quinta's 620 guest rooms and 98 villas are nothing short of the fanciest casitas, complete with red-tile roofs, French doors, private patios and, of course, fireplaces. The resort's more than 40 pools are all worth checking out, especially since splashing around the temperature-controlled pools is one of the many highlights of summer at La Quinta. Have kiddos in tow? Catch a family-friendly film during Summer Chill while floating in the pool or lounging poolside (taking place Memorial Day through Labor Day weekends). laquintaresort.com.

Take The Guilt Out of Those Cocktails!

Don't let yourself feel guilty for indulging in those poolside drinks yesterday. Instead, join one of the resort's unlimited fitness classes that include yoga, meditation, TRX, hiking, biking, golf, tennis and more.

THE RESORT AT PELICAN HILL

This world-class destination put Newport Beach back on the map of top O.C. spots to visit when it opened its doors 10 years ago this fall. What makes The Resort at Pelican Hill an international hot spot starts with its Coliseum Pool, one of the largest circular pools in the entire world, but extends far beyond that. From there, explore the resort's Tuscany vibes perfectly recreated in the heart of Cali, and its 36-hole Tom Fazio-designed golf courses packed with the most stunning ocean views. From the California Sugar Glow scrub at the heavenly spa, to the unreal house-made pasta at signature restaurant Andrea, there is bliss everywhere you look here. And this summer, you can try your own hand at creating melt-in-your-mouth pasta with the resort's Art of Pasta Making class. Learn hands-on from the resort's in-house pastaia, and then enjoy your creation as part of a two-course lunch. pelicanhill.com.

Tee it Up

Perfect your swing this summer with the help of the resort's Ladies' Summer Golf Academy. Led by PGA master and certified golf instructor, Tim Mitchell, you'll learn different aspects of the game select Fridays starting July 6. Whether you're a beginner, or just looking for a refresher course, you won't want to miss this opportunity.

POST RANCH INN

With the roads open to Big Sur again, now is the time to plan your escape to what may be the most serene spot on the California coast. Pulling nature's elements into the design whenever possible, chances are you'll find grass growing on the roof of your room and will undoubtedly love the way the resort appears to effortlessly sit atop the mountain ridge: so graceful, yet striking. The Pacific Suites allow you to see the ocean from every corner of your room, while still ensuring you experience the highest level of privacy where you remain unseen by other resort-goers. Have the hotel pack you a lunch and hop in the complimentary Lexus convertible to enjoy your prepared picnic along the PCH. You won't want to miss the recent redesign of the resort's famous Tree Houses—perched atop 9-ft.-tall stilts. The upgraded sound systems, wider and more spacious floor plans, and new bedding from L.A.-based atelier Matteo—that is 100-percent natural, chemical- and dye-free and 600-thread counts of sheer heaven—are just a few of the many new additions you'll love. postranchinn.com.

Bottle Service

Post Ranch Inn's signature restaurant, Sierra Mar, is proudly home to one of the largest wine selections in North America, and it would be a shame for you not to give one of the 14,000-plus bottles a try. Also, be sure to take a glass of wine with you up to the deck for a peak at the stars above via a Meade telescope during the resort's nightly stargazing.

HOTEL DEL CORONADO

This Victorian-style beachfront hotel is the definition of grand. Commonly called “The Del,” Hotel del Coronado has seen classic stars like Marilyn Monroe, Frank Sinatra, Cary Grant and countless others grace its guest rooms. Currently celebrating its 130th birthday, the resort has maintained its charm and elegance throughout the times. Though the hotel has seen a number of renovations in its 100-plus years, some of which were amenity updates to accommodate modern wants and needs, it has also put a great deal of effort into keeping hold of the original design and charm that has been warming the hearts of people since 1888. In fact, the lobby was restored to its original design, complete with a front desk modeled after the one that stood there 130 years ago. For its birthday, the resort has plenty of parties planned throughout the year, and summer is the peak of the celebratory season. Partake in the ultimate beach party at the resort’s Del Beach Bash on July 1, as well as the Summer Luau Beach Party (open to Club at The Del members) on July 13, and much more. hoteldel.com.

AUBERGE DU SOLEIL

A whopping 33 acres of Napa Valley wine and olive grove paradise, Auberge du Soleil was one of the first boutique resorts in this famed wine region. The exclusive feel of the resort with its just 50 rooms makes your stay here feel even more fabulous. Each room (which really feels more like a cottage) comes with a fireplace, a fridge stocked with local wine and cheese, and French doors that take you out to a breathtaking private veranda. Because the resort knows its guests came to Napa Valley for a reason, it has worked to incorporate the wine and olive country vibe into all areas of the resort. Let the pups play and dine on house-made dog biscuits paired with bacon-, chicken- or beef-flavored water (vegan is available too) while you sip on a glass of appropriately-named Mutt Lynch Unleashed Chardonnay, Merlot Over and Play Dead or Chateau d'Og Cabernet Sauvignon.

BEVERLY WILSHIRE, A FOUR SEASONS HOTEL

Since 1928, this L.A. icon has been welcoming the world's elite. And this year marks 90 years of the Beverly Wilshire, A Four Seasons Hotel as a stunning staple in Beverly Hills. It's hard to truly appreciate this hotel without noting its role in everyone's favorite Cinderella story, "Pretty Woman."
