EXTRA EXTRA!

Beneath it all, Bethenny Frankel- who is famous for her reality TV roles in The Real Housewives of New York, Bethenny Getting Married, Bethenny Ever After, The Apprentice and Skating With the Stars- is actually a chef and author known for creating accessible healthy foods.

If you've ever seen the Real Housewives of New York, you probably know about Skinnygirl Margaritas, Bethenny's flagship skinny product. The all-natural bottled margarita is made with Blue Agave clear tequila, agave nectar, and is only 100 calories per 4 oz. serving, as opposed to the crazy cocktail alternatives out there worth 1,000 calories or more.

The beverage has always been sold on the east coast and select cities, but now you can pick up a bottle at AJ's for only $13.99. The verdict is still out- we bought it today before 8 a.m., but we'll let you know what we think!
