

Fire Can't Destroy Business at Greer Lodge Resort and Cabins

Written by Sona Patel

Monday, 16 May 2011 09:37 - Last Updated Monday, 16 May 2011 09:40

EXTRA EXTRA!

Lighten up your weekend by enjoying a relaxing getaway to the Greer Lodge Resort & Cabins in Greer, located in the White Mountains of Eastern Arizona, at 8500' elevation. This beautiful resort has been family owned and operated since 1948 but recently had a tragic fire that caused the loss of 11 rooms.

The recent media coverage made it sound like the ENTIRE Greer Lodge Resort & Cabins was destroyed. However, this is false, there is still plenty of room for you and your loved ones to rest and enjoy a vacation. The Greer Lodge Resort & Cabins has 50 Cabins and a total of 140 rooms which remains open for business. The owner, Doug Sandahl, insists that it is "business as usual. Our resort sits on 25 acres and it was not damaged by the May 10th fire. We will rebuild the Greer Lodge building and keep you posted as we progress." Until then, come to Greer and enjoy a range of activities like fly fishing, wildlife viewing, and restaurants in a range of cozy cabins that are even dog friendly!

<http://www.GreerLodgeAz.com/>