EXTRA EXTRA!

Did you know Luis Gonzalez and MVP ambassador Justin Upton will be starring on our July issue cover? Here's a sneak peek!

This July 12, Major League Baseball will be hitting our Valley hard. For the first time, the Arizona Diamondbacks and the City of Phoenix will host the All-Star Game at Chase Field. Resorts are booked, celebrities and sports stars are jet-setting in and the Valley is ready to host MLB fans from around the world.

Arizona Foothills Magazine has the inside track to reach them right in their rooms, as we are the only magazine in-room the Arizona Biltmore--where the players and coaches will be staying. Powerful players grace our cover. Inside, we'll share the most influential men in the Valley, expensive real estate, local attractions, spas and restaurants with this captive audience.
