

On the Horizon: New Scottsdale Club with a Beachy Vibe

Written by Arizona Foothills Magazine

Friday, 15 July 2011 12:03 -

EXTRA EXTRA!

Scottsdale Beach Club is on the horizon and will be the first of its kind when it opens in summer 2012. Not only will it have private plunge pools, a poolside taco bar and Arizona's largest LED video screen, but also a floating stage overlooking the pool to play host to deejays and live music. And the best part of all? The club will be open to the public - no membership and no hotel affiliation required.