EXTRA EXTRA!

Face of Foothills and Future Face of Foothills Update: We would like to thank all contestants and their support teams for their enthusiasm and participation in this year's contest. This year the response has been so tremendous that some reported having difficulty voting in the final hours. We have made a decision to invite the TOP 15 Finalists for Face of Foothills and Future Face of Foothills to the official interviews next Monday and Tuesday. Please be sure to email faceofffoothills@azfoothills.com to RSVP by 5pm today. Again, we thank everyone for their participation and look forward to meeting each and every one of you!
