

Phoenix Adds new Restaurants Downtown

Written by Arizona Foothills Magazine

Thursday, 27 October 2011 09:51 -

EXTRA EXTRA!

Three new restaurants will open their doors in the coming weeks at CityScape in Downtown Phoenix including The Breakfast Club, The Strand and Chipotle.

The popular, Scottsdale breakfast and lunch spot, The Breakfast Club, will open its second location on November 14th next to Tilted Kilt and the forthcoming Kimpton Palomar Hotel.

The Strand, a “fast casual” Italian restaurant serving sandwiches, pasta, salads and an Italian fry bread called “cizzellini”, will open the second week in November next to The Arrogant Butcher near the northwest corner of Jefferson and First streets.

Chipotle will open in early December next to Five Guys and Jimmy John’s at the corner of Washington Street and 1st Avenue.

Within the last month, CityScape has welcomed new office tenants including UnitedHealthcare, which added approximately 650 employees to the office tower.

Visit www.cityscapephoenix.com for more information.