

Scottsdale Coach Dies of Lung Cancer

Written by Arizona Foothills Magazine

Monday, 23 January 2012 10:42 - Last Updated Tuesday, 24 January 2012 13:27

EXTRA EXTRA!

On Sunday, January 22, Notre Dame's Scot Bemis passed away at the young age of 45 due to lung cancer at the Mayo hospital. Bemis coached football, girl's soccer and was a science teacher at Notre Dame.

A pioneer in the Valley, Bemis started the football program at Notre Dame and led the team to state championships in 2007 and 2008. Click here to view a video Notre Dame posted on their website honoring Coach Bemis.

Our thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends.

Monday, Jan 23

Prayers for Coach Bemis.

Prayer of St. Peregrine – 2:45 p.m.

Rosary – Monday night – 7:00 p.m.

All are in the NDP chapel