

Arizona Foothills Supports New Growth in the Valley

Written by Sarah Love

Monday, 27 February 2012 09:32 -

EXTRA EXTRA!

For decades the 220 acres along Dynamite Boulevard has been home to the Pinnacle Peak Ranch. Unfortunately, it has seen better days and is now seeking to have a new guest ranch. Reata Ranch's lodging, ranch amenities and residences will revitalize the property's tradition, while substantially upgrading its facilities.

Our President and Publisher, Michael Dee, is excited to support Reata Ranch! Look what he has to say!

"Scottsdale has a lot of things to be proud of, especially its rich heritage. Reata Ranch would showcase Scottsdale in a different, refreshing way. It would enhance the tourist experience as well as our credibility as a truly western town."

Michael Dee

President and Publisher of Arizona Foothills Magazine

Check out the website here.