

Local Restaurants Support Veterans for 9/11

Written by Kirstina Bolton

Monday, 10 September 2012 15:03 - Last Updated Monday, 10 September 2012 15:19

EXTRA! EXTRA!

In honor of the 11th anniversary of the 9/11 tragedy, Mastro's Restaurants is teaming up with Jared Allen's Homes 4 Wounded Warriors (JAH4WW) to support veterans and active military in a number of inspiring ways.

Tomorrow, Mastro's Restaurants will host local veteran Private First Class Joshua Bullis and his family at Ocean Club in Scottsdale in honor of his service to our country. Both of Bullis' legs were amputated above his knee, as was his left arm above the elbow, after an accidental explosion in Afghanistan in 2010. Bullis is one of many wounded warriors that JAH4WW supports.

Diners can also take part in supporting this local charity by simply dining at one of Mastro's three Valley restaurants - City Hall, Ocean Club or the Steakhouse. Mastro's created a specialty "patriotic" cocktail that will be offered starting September 11 through the end of the month. A portion of the proceeds will benefit JAH4WW.

To learn more, visit www.mastrosrestaurants.com and jaredallen69inc.com/h4ww