EXTRA EXTRA!

The heart-wrenching aftermath of hurricane Sandy has left countless cities in shambles all across the east coast. In an effort to aid those affected, Scottsdale Fashion Square has partnered with the American Red Cross to do their part in raising monetary donations for relief efforts. Now is the time to do your part.

Starting today, there will be a collection site located at the concierge in SFS, which is located near the Food Court, accepting such monetary donations in the form of cash or check.

Donations will also be accepted online at www.redcross.org/hurricane-sandy. More information is available at www.FashionSquare.com. With a few simple clicks, donations will directly impact those in need.

How much help we can provide in the coming days will be determined in part by your generosity right now. As the storm's effects become more widespread, more people will need our help.
