EXTRA EXTRA!

Vektor Vodka teamed up with the US Airways Center to launch Bar Vektor on Saturday, November 17, just in time for the Suns match against Miami Heat.

Legal drinking-aged fans will receive a free sample of two different Suns-themed cocktails made with Vektor Vodka at Saturday's game, and will be asked to vote on their favorite. The Suns-themed Vektor cocktail with the most fan votes will be featured at Bar Vektor throughout the season.

Fans attending the pre-game party will also receive a $3 off coupon for one Vektor Vodka cocktail, while supplies last.
