

The Move to Old Town

Written by Courtney Childress
Friday, 08 March 2013 12:57 -

Team Evolution moves to Old Town Scottsdale!

This new locations brings many opportunities to our team and our clients. Our new and very convenient location in Old Town Scottsdale allows our services to be right where the action is. Our sellers will receive even more exposure to their home listings as this new office takes full advantage of the foot traffic in Old Town Scottsdale. On top of excellent customer service in a convenient location, our home buyers will benefit as our large team ensures more timely and efficient "top notch" customer service. Our agents are experienced, tech savvy pro's and we bring a fresh approach to the ever changing world of real estate.

In addition to services to traditional home buyers and sellers, our real estate team opens doors for our investors and our distressed homeowners. On top of serveral years experience successfully negotiating short sales on the listing side, we have access to a variety of cash investors that understand the short sale process and will submit immediate offers on any short sale home. For our investor clients, we offer resources for purchasing wholesale properties that are not available on the MLS and extensive knowledge and experience in "fix and flips".

Check out more here... <http://www.youtube.com/embed/MwNSCb01Qqs>