

Things To Do in Tucson this Spring

Written by Taylor Norman

Looking for something to get you in the mood for springtime in the desert? Whether it is for a family get-together, a romantic getaway or simply trying something new, definitely visit these locations during your next bit of downtime this spring.

Biosphere 2

At the base of the Santa Catalina Mountains, Biosphere 2 (above) houses multiple exhibits, multimedia displays, a bookstore and café. The Biosphere 2's mission is to serve as a center for research, outreach, teaching and life-long learning about Earth, its living systems and its place in the universe. For more information call: 520-838-6200 or visit them here.

Journey into King Tut's Tomb Exhibit

More than 130 authentic replicas of King Tut's stunning funerary mask, mummifications couch, weapons and tools at this exhibit at the Rialto Building in downtown Tucson. The exhibit will be open from March 21, 2011 – May 1, 2011. For more information call 520-622-8595 or visit them here.

Tucson Padres Minor League Baseball

The Tucson Padres, Tucson's new Triple-A baseball team and affiliate of the San Diego Padres, plays 68 home games at Tucson's Kino Stadium on summer evenings. They will be playing from April 15, 2011 – August 28, 2011. For more information call: 520- 434-1381 for visit them here.

Pima Air & Space Museum

As one of the largest space museums in the world, the Pima Air & Space Museum houses more than 300 aircrafts that have unique historical backgrounds. They feature aircrafts from not only the United States but ones from all over the world. For more information call: 520-574-0462 or visit them here.

Tucson Botanical Gardens

This private, non-profit organization is supported by income generated through its admissions and other support from the community and guests. The Tucson Botanical Gardens strive to provide a setting that is beautiful to the eyes and attractive to all the senses and promotes responsible use of plants and water in a desert environment through education and demonstration. For more information call: 520-326-9686 or visit them here.

Sabino Canyon Tours

The Sabino Canyon is a natural desert oasis in Tucson's very own Coronado National Forest. You can embark on a memorable tram ride through the canyon, flourishing with wildlife and beautiful desert landscapes. For more information call 520-749-2861 or visit them here.

Old Tucson Studios

If you're in the mood for some Old West Entertainment, Old Tucson Studios has you covered everywhere from staged cowboy gunfights, stunts, music, comedies and tours of the historic attraction itself. And don't forget to indulge in their mesquite-grilled Big Jake's barbecue dishes and generous beverage selection. For more information call: 520-833-0100 or visit them here.